Report of the Auditors, for the year 1849.

We, the subscribers, being a committee appointed to examine the Selectmen's accounts, have attended to that duty, and find them well vouched and correct.

We find that the Selectmen paid last year, after the books were audited, and before town meeting bills amounting to $90,99

Also paid Dr. Frye, ten dollars for medical services in 1847, to Mrs. Towle, by vote of the Town 10,00

We also find other claims that were then standing against the town amounting to 196,55

Which would increase the town debt 297,54

We find they have assessed the sum of 1804,83
